The St. Thomas Aquinas Society is a non-profit 501 (c)(3) religious organization whose purpose is to promote prayer and education in our Catholic Faith through spiritual events such as retreat days, healing Masses, and especially through our national annual conference each August.

This year's conference, Fatima and The Triumph, is our 20th major conference. It will be held at the Pikes Peak Center August 3 – August 6, 2017, opening with a free concert at 7pm, Thursday August 3, with Tony Melendez. The conference is also Free. There is no required registration fee. We depend on donations and fund raising. Please help us to help others by calling us at 448-0020 or by donating directly at the above online address.
