The St. Thomas Aquinas Society is a non-profit 501 (c)(3) religious organization whose purpose is to promote prayer and education in our Catholic Faith through spiritual events such as retreat days, healing Masses, and especially through our national annual conference each August.

This year's conference, Christ the King of Mercy, is our 22nd major conference. It will be held at the Pikes Peak Center July 31 – August 4, 2019. The conference is Free. There is no required registration fee. We depend on donations and fund raising. Please help us to help others by calling us at 448-0020 or by donating directly at the above online address.
